

Eight ASRM Postgraduate Courses have been approved for up to 0.65 CEU (6.5 hours) each by ABB PEER for continuing education credit. Courses include:

PG01 Interprofessional Course: Options for Emergency and Elective Fertility Preservation (FP) - The Team Approach

PG02 Interprofessional Course: Pushing the Legal Envelope: Novel Applications and New Approaches in Gamete Management and ART Law

PG05 Preimplantation Genetic Diagnosis (PGD) Impact on Reproductive Outcome of Poor Prognosis ART Patients with Use of Next-Generation Sequencing (NGS) for Aneuploidy Testing: Is the Time for Routine Testing Here?

PG06 Interprofessional Approach to Counsel and to Optimize Treatment Outcomes in Couples with Recurrent ICSI Failure and Poor Sperm Quality

PG10 ART in Transition

PG13 Interprofessional Course: Clinical Genetics for the Infertile Male: The Present and the Future

PG14 Interprofessional Course: Genetics for Reproductive Medicine Practitioners

PG15 Oocyte or Embryo Cryopreservation in Clinical Practice and the Postmodern Society

Up to 1.65 CEUs (16.5 hours) will be approved for the Scientific Program. Titles will be posted soon.

You must verify your attendance at ASRM 2015 programs on the official ABB PEER CEU forms available at AAB's exhibit booth #305. Stop by booth #305 in the ASRM Exhibit Hall and pick up your forms early to check off educational programs as you attend them.