I certify that the statements and information included in my grant proposal are true and completed to the best of my knowledge. If selected for a College of Reproductive Biology (CRB) Andrew Runge Memorial Embryology Scientist Research Grant, I agree to complete my research project according to the guidelines described in the grant announcements and application and will fulfill all reporting responsibilities therein, including:

1. Acknowledging the CRB and EMD Serono in any publication or presentation arising from work supported by this grant.
2. Reporting any changes to the proposed project to the CRB, including any mailing or email address changes, change in project status, or change in mentor(s) before or during the award period.
3. Completing all interim and final institution, awardee, and mentor reporting requirements.

I understand and acknowledge the following:

1. The award payment will be made directly to me, and the CRB does not withhold taxes from the award (federal withholding, social security, local taxes, etc.). I will be responsible for filing any and all taxes, if applicable.
2. I will be personally responsible for the repayment of funds provided by the award if I fail to meet the obligations of the award described in the grant announcements and application.
